

420 (9feetofsmoke Remix)

Six Feet Under

Sit back and hold your breath, just let nature take effect

 A warm glow inside my bones

 The touch of velvet rubbed against my soul

 Thoughts of things you've always known

 Thoughts of things you've always known

 Break through and listen, to yourself

 To your SelfLet go of perception, enter true reality

 I can see through my third eye

Sit back and hold your breath, just let nature take effect

 A warm glow inside my bones

 The touch of velvet rubbed against my soul

 Thoughts of things you've always known

 Thoughts of things you've always known

 Break through and listen, to yourself

 To your SelfLet go of perception, enter true reality

 A sea of green will set us free

 Dank

 Expand my inner being

 Through what the Earth provides

 I hear her voice aliiing

The hour has arrivedSit back and hold your breath, just let nature take effect

 A warm glow inside my bones

 The touch of velvet rubbed against my soul

 Thoughts of things you've always known

 Thoughts of things you've always known

 Break through and listen, to yourself

 To your Self
