

Key to the Storms

Mayhem

Penetrate the lions at the gates
Illusions flow
After the next Iron Age
Mankind lost
The ships of flames rise to the sky
Annunaki on board
Watcher searches inside the thoughts
Inner waves corresponding outer frequencies
Rider falls down
The slave set free
Unknown path
The ways to wisdom are hidden
Shall the speaker silence
And the memories fade apart
Like the new attraction of outer space
Where the atomic corpus melts
Beyond the source of fears
Watcher sits on the border throne of insanity
Giving solution of existence from nonsense
