

Joey's Song

Xiu Xiu

Joey joey
You have never let anyone down
I am sorry that
This is happening to you
Oh what is the point
Of this collapse
You are not crying
I know you are only sweating tooJoey's song in everything
Bitterness and jealousy
As long as you know i am waiting
Fever crams the skin of joey's song
La la la la
As long you know i am waiting
Passing out in the joy
Of joey's songSlayer moon
Grief is not new, love even less so
I am sorry that this is happening to you
Oh what is the point
Embrace the boy
You are my brother
Snow will cover your path tooMary mary
Listen listen listen listen listen
I am sorry that this is happening to you
So the light is goneNow it is the end
I am your brother
The snow will cover
My path tooJoey's song in everything
Bitterness and jealousy
As long as you know i am waiting
Fever crams the skin of joey's song
La la la la
As long you know i am waiting
Ignorant of the joy (indifferent of joy)
Of joey's song
