Dreamkeeper (Instrumental)

Xandria

I've been dreaming all those years
I've been sleeping for so long
In a diamond sky of lonely worldsAll your eyes stare up at me
As if I was wide awake
And I only can live my own curseI will keep your dream
Make it live for real
Only just for a momentI will send a dying rose
For you all to be close
To its scent that has never beenAll the colors to unfold
All the magic we behold
In the life we share in fantasyI will keep your dream
Make it live for real
Only just for a moment
Say these words again
Don't leave me alone
When my own dreams have finally diedKeep my dream now
I keep yours forever
Save my hope now
I save yours forever
Hold me, help me
Carry me upon your wings
To save my soul with your loveI will keep your dream
Make it live for real
Only just for a moment
Say these words again
Don't leave me alone
When my own dreams have finally diedKeep my dreams now
I keep yours forever
Save my hope now
I save yours forever
Hold me, help me
Will you be my dream-keeper?
