To Flagship

Oh, Sleeper

One step meets two, open, in the sea street
We will reign free, I can't be king
Right me from this dead bulb
One step meets two, open, in the sea street
We will reign free, as the sons of the first king
When wave meets foot
A ships wreck will drown its crew
Every man must face the fears, so he can be brave
Please turn this vessel back to flagship
So I can brave it, hold fast and brave
Every man who steps aboard
Must face the fears and brave
He must brave
'Cause even the most praised of ships
Will wreck when the captain is careless
Oh Captain, the waves are like jaws, dripping
Oh, let me not be made meal to the sea
'Cause I want to be strong
Yeah, I want to see the cannons jump
Strip my pride, oh, strip my pride
Let no fault meet this hull
I know the reef's kiss, it cuts and sinks
Draws me deep inside her, I won't fear her
Through swells, we will reign free
As the sons of the first king
The sons of flagship
