Melted Cassettes

(Intro) Every three years, an ancient ritual takes place here

Every three years, an ancient ritual takes place here (Madrox) I communicate with the dead through seven LED screens

 All programmed to channel 13

 They converse and have a laugh and tell a joke or two

 You probably think I'm out my skull but that shit is all true

 Me and my brother got a hundred fifty reasons or more

 Why they live inside the wall and hide under the floor

 They haven't walked into the light or the dark

 And even though there's no life in their body

 There's a pulse where their heart used to be

 That's called kinetic energy

 Where there's a will to survive

 There is a will to be

 An angry entity lives here now

 And he's more pissed on how things turned out

 He's got a deep rooted anger

 That lingers like a foul stench

 An eternal thirst that'll never be quenched

 So pack your bags if you just moved in

Cause there's no telling the things he's capable of doing (Chorus) There's a dark spirit living in your house with you

 So here's a quick list of things you gon need to do

 GET THE FUCK OUT!

 Don't grab shit, just hit the door

 GET THE FUCK OUT!

 Don't even mind the blood that's on the floor!

 There's a dark spirit living in your house with you

 So here's a quick list of things you gon need to do

 GET THE FUCK OUT!

 Now he's gonna try to trick you to stay

 GET THE FUCK OUT!

Don't look back, just run the fuck away! (Monoxide) I'm sitting watching TV and my lights go out

 So now I'm sitting in the dark like

 What the fuck's this all about?

 And I swear I hear somebody walking in my hallway

 So I turn and look and I see something just fade away

 I run and grab a radio, push record and play

 And I just kept quiet and parlayed

If you got somethin' to say, you gotta say it now
Here's your chance
It started as a whisper and slowly became enhanced
To a blood curdling scream (aaaaaaaaaagh)
He said if I don't go, he'll come and get me
And he'll never let me leave
I'm not a skeptic, the message was intercepted
By my radio, telling me to leave or I'd regret it
I got the fuck out quicker than jailbirds
Who got an early release, a credit
For having some time served
There's a real estate for sale sign on my lawn
And no one even knows that I'm gone(Chorus)There's a dark spirit living in your house with you
So here's a quick list of things you gon need to do
GET THE FUCK OUT!
Don't grab shit, just hit the door
GET THE FUCK OUT!
Don't even mind the blood that's on the floor!
There's a dark spirit living in your house with you
So here's a quick list of things you gon need to do
GET THE FUCK OUT!
Now he's gonna try to trick you to stay
GET THE FUCK OUT!
Don't look back, just run the fuck away!(Shaggy 2 Dope)Seems Madrox tunes into channel thirteen
But I prefer number seventeen, know what I mean?
Probably not, but I can see some poltergeist shit
(They're heeeeeeeeere)
I can't get enough of it!
See, this house is plagued with demons and so forth
They even got statues on the front porch
But I'll fuck around
And just sit there and pet them boys
People seem hokey but I see the real McCoys
Oh boy, when you see a ball rolling down the stairs
Get ready to change the fuck up out them underwear
Cause these spirits, they don't play
These demons and spirits
Spirits and demons are homies
And if you ain't passed or connected to the afterworld
You'll be running out this house like a little girl
So when you hear
(GET THE FUCK OUT)
There'll be a for sale sign, without a doubt(Chorus)There's a dark spirit living in your house with you
So here's a quick list of things you gon need to do
GET THE FUCK OUT!

Don't grab shit, just hit the door

GET THE FUCK OUT!

Don't even mind the blood that's on the floor!

There's a dark spirit living in your house with you
So here's a quick list of things you gon need to do

GET THE FUCK OUT!

Now he's gonna try to trick you to stay

GET THE FUCK OUT!

Don't look back, just run the fuck away!(Outro)(Reversed Talking)
