

If This Was My Last Song

Auryn

Every once in a while I count the moments
That are passing us by, when we should have know it
I was so crazy in love, I didn't say it enough,
I didn't say it enough!If this was MY LAST SONG,
I wouldn't waste one lyric on what went wrong,
The melody would dance like you do
And I would repeat the beat,
But always some new
So baby, I'ma sing this to you
Like I only got one time
To tell you all the things that you've done
That make me fall so in love with you
And it's a feeling I could never undo
So baby, I'ma sing this to you
Like this was MY LAST SONG
Like this was MY LAST SONGIf you want nothing else to close the second
Giving all of yourself, and you won't regret it
'Cause if you're crazy in love, you gotta say it enough
You gotta say it enough!If this was MY LAST SONG,
I wouldn't waste one lyric on what went wrong,
The melody would dance like you do
And I would repeat the beat,
But always some new
So baby, I'ma sing this to you
Like I only got one time
To tell you all the things that you've done
That make me fall so in love with you
And it's a feeling I could never undo
So baby, I'ma sing this to you
