

Damnation Is Here

Kataklysm

As the sky darkens the warriors awaken
The feeble have fallen, opposition is weaken
 Strategic in play, trapped in vein
Annilhilated in dust damnation is now
 Damnation is here
Are you ready to burn?
 Wounded souls in a tragic time
 Victims of oppression from a conquering tribe
 To find a new identity in assimilation or extinction
Buried beneath a sea of rage their history is lost in shame
Prisoners of power left to be devoured
 Damnation is here
 Are you ready to burn?
 Damnation is here
