Roquefort

Karnivool

You want to chase this rabbit down a hole
You start to slide, and lose grip of control
Make haste, it's time to ruin, or reward
You say, give in, then, you beg for more
You'll bury this, slow down
It's all this system breeds
You'll bury this, slow down
It's time to make amends
Save your eyes for this place
Where I define you, myth, or desire
When it's true love, you held dear
Feel it rising
So cut me to size, I'm losing shape through all this
You call me sublime
You know that's such a waste of energy
Will I change your mind if I could show you my way?
A black stain on your heart
You know that's not what I wanna see
You'll bury this, slow down, it's time to make amends

(Always in vain, now)
Save your eyes for this place
Where I define you, myth, or desire
When it's true love, you held dear
Fear your horizons
You want to chase this rabbit down a hole
You start to slide, and lose grip of control
Make haste, it's time to ruin, or reward
You say, give in, and then, you beg for more
You'll bury this, slow down
It's time to make amends, I crave you
Set your eyes on this place
Where I define you, myth, or desire
When it's true love, you feel
Save your eyes for this place
Where I define you, myth, or desire
When it's true love, you feel, here
Feel it rising
