

Collides with Beauty

ATB

And I know
You know
It should be me
That's holding you
And I know that pride
Collides with beautyAnd I know
You know
It should be me
That's touching you
And I know that pride
Collides with beautyI'm upside down
And inside out
The room's not big enough
I'm waiting for your love
Been waiting for your loveGone round and round
Half falling down
The floor's not flat enough
I'm waiting for your love
Been waiting for your loveChorus:
And I know
You know
It should be me
That's holding you
And I know that pride
Collides with beautyAnd I know
You know
It should be me
That's touching you
And I know that pride
Collides with beautyAnd I know
You know
It should be me
That's holding you
And I know that pride
Collides with beautyAnd I know
You know
It should be me
That's loving you
And I know that pride

Collides with beauty It's too much
It's not enough
The walls can't hold me up
I'm waiting for your love
Been waiting for your love I'm back and forth
And forth and back
The window's fogging up
I'm waiting for your love
Been waiting for your love
