

Gentlemen (Demo, Recorded At Ultrasuede)

The Afghan Whigs

Now Your attention, please
Now turn off the light
Your infection, please
I haven't got all night Understand, do you understand?
Understand, I'm a gentleman, I'm a gentleman I stayed in too long
But she was the perfect fit
And we dragged it out so long this time
Started to make each other sick But now I've got time for you
For you, you, you, you and me too
Well, come and get it, come and get it
'Cause I'm done Understand, do you understand?
Understand, I'm a gentleman, I'm a gentleman I waited for the joke, it never did arrive
And words I thought I'd smoke Let me in, I'm cold
All messed up but nowhere to go
You got indecision and indecision is my enemy
Well, unlock the cabinet, hey, hey, hey, hey I'll take whatever you got
Now I'm on it, now I'm on it and you're done
I waited for the joke, it never did arrive
And words I thought I'd choke, I hardly recognize
