Was I Surprised

Ol' Paint

I recall you standing by the sea
And the light from your face
'Cause you were there with me
I remember the look you gave me
When you smiled into my eyes....you said you loved me
Was I surprised

I remember the talks we had
And the plans we made
About the future we would have someday
I can still see you laughing
Beneath the sunny skies....you said you loved me
Was I surprised

But now those days are gone
We'll never cry or laugh again
All I have is forgotten moments
To remember when

I retrace the steps we took
Along the shore
The memories crowd my head
And I remember more
I can still see you crying
When we began to realize....you said you loved me
Was I surprised

Oh how those memories
Bring back the scene
The two of us standing there
Dreaming dreams
And here I am standing
As the sea begins to rise....you said you loved me
Was I surprised
