

Missiles

Warhead

[music: eilen]

[lyrics: eilen]

[arranged by eilen]now here i stand, i've got no eyes got no hands, no arms to embrace the darkest day, crossed man's way can't describe the sorrow in memissiles never win missiles never care
missiles never win
missilethe papers said that we would try nuclear weapons we say good-bye but a few more tests, some islands sink jack, we can do without sorrow you bringmissiles never win
missiles never care
missiles never win
missilethe dead, they cry, do we need more?
where's the sense? what is it good for?missiles never win
missiles never care
missiles never win
missiles
