

Beautiful Losers

Ocean Colour Scene

Your dream make-up is cracked and wearing thin
Your eyes are on your chin, it's getting hard for you
But to make up is only make-believe
And we don't need a scene like thisWhatever happened to the beautiful losers
Whatever happened to the beautiful losersYour eyes' closed and dreamed of places
That you and I would go, it's getting hard for me to love you
Like I used to, I don't believe, hello, do you?Whatever happened to the beautiful losers
Whatever happened to the beautiful losers
