Asking Questions

Charlie Wilson

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to do one thing
(One thing, yeah)
I ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to make you feel good
(Make you feel good)When someone like you
Needs someone like me
You know where to find me
At the club where we used to go toWhen someone like you
Needs someone like me
At one in the mornin'
It can only mean one thingYou wanna be, held in the right way
Wanna be, touched in the right place
You wanna be, known by your first name
(Known by your first name)
Girl it's cool with me'Cus, I ain't askin' questions
(I ain't askin' questions)
I'm only here to do one thing
(One thing, yeah)
I ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to make you feel good
(Make you feel good)I ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to do one thing
(Do one thing, baby)
I ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to make you feel good
(Oh, yeah, yeah)When someone like you
(Someone like you)
Wants someone like me
There ain't too much talking
'Cause you want all the sex you came forWhen someone like you baby
Spends the whole night with me

The fun doesn't end with
A few kisses at the door before you goYou wanna be, held in the right way
You wanna be, touched in the right place
You wanna be, known by your first name
Girl that's cool with meBecause I ain't askin' questions
I ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to do one thing
(One thing baby)
I ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to make you feel good
(Here to make you feel good)I ain't askin' questions
(Questions)
I'm only here to do one thing
(One thing baby)
I ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to make you feel good(So maybe this could be the case)
Here's my number
Call me again
(Again)
I'll be glad to talk to you again
(Talk to you baby)Here's my number
Call me again
(Call me again, yeah)
I'll be glad to touch you again
(I'll be glad to touch you)
Let's do it againI ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to do one thing
(One thing baby)
I ain't askin' questions
I'm only here to make you feel good
(Make you feel good, make you feel good)I ain't askin' questions
(Questions)
I'm only here to do one thing
(Only here, one thing baby)I ain't askin' questions
(I ain't askin' questions)
I'm only here to make you feel good
(Only here to make you feel good, oh, yeah)[Incomprehensible]
