The Visit

Chad Brock

Sorry I'm so late, but I've been out walking
Trying to find a way to tell you, what I think you already know
I'd never want to hurt you, 'cause darling I still love you
But things aren't like they used to be, it's time for letting goI wasn't out there looking, but a month ago last Sunday
I met someone just like you in line at the grocery store
And we've been spending time together, yeah, she knows all about you
The truth is she can give me, what you can't anymoreLookin' back when we first started
I never thought I'd see this day
If only I could write the pages
Our story wouldn't end this wayI feel so much better knowing we could have this moment
But it looks like it may rain soon and it's getting kind of late
I'll always bring your roses each time I come to visit
The caretaker's waving, he wants to close the gatesOhh, lookin' back when we first started
I never thought I'd see this day
If only I could write the pages
Our story wouldn't end this wayIf only I could write the pages
Our story wouldn't end this way
