

Decadance

November Process

In the ugliness of beauty
And when pretty is vicious
You thought you were a voyeur
But the irony is delicious
Yeah, yeah
In the access of excess
The pigs are at the trough
You thought you had to fill
But enough is never enough
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Enough is never enough
Young thrill seekers craving attention
Thought you were special
You never learned your lesson
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance

Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Enough is never enough
Those that dare to question
Those that dare to dream
Buried alive in your shit
No one can hear you scream
In the belly of the beast
You stood tall
Didn't anybody tell you?
All empires must fall
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Feel the decadance
Enough is never enough
Decadance, decadance
Yeah, the decadance
