

The Chasm

The Kovenant

Breath through the chasm of night Wander off into the mountain Where many a king has fone Before the dawn of time Misty paths enlighten my way To seek the ancient wisdom Travel to the far beyond To unveil that carved in stone Myths of my forefathers quests Acknowledged before my eyes Here in this mountain hall I grasp at the memories Feel the gaze of enticing power Unite myself with out forefathers kings Grow in the knowledge of anceint glory I am the past come again Breath through the chasm of night Wander off into the skies Where many a king has gone before Forever to walk, again once more
