Hound Dude

Josh Gracin

you were heading for the pound dog no one wanted you around dog and now your gunna be a found dog you'll be a hound dude
awowowo
a hound dude
yeah, watch out!The whole world is gonna know you they'll be falling at your paw soon so bark it up all you want to and be a hound dude
awowowo
were all hound dudes
the big dogs nowonce we were rollin pups with nothing but our dreams now we can strut our stuff while the fans all howl and screamno more small town dog were best to live life down dog no more being just a hound dog if your a hound dude
goodbye leash
im a hound dude
no collar for me
were all hound dudes
happy as a flee
were all hound dudes
on top of the world to see
a hound dude
