Miss You So

Nikki Sudden

I'll call you tomorrow when I feel better
And I guess we'll be able to talk on the telephone
'Cause from here in Chicago
You know I miss you so
Even though we don't really know
Each other yet at all.There's been times I've fallen down
So many nights I've spent without sleep
I'm here across the sea
And you know it's killing me
Oh, you know
I miss you so.There's been too many schemes
Too many, too many remedies
Too many broken, wasted years
But, I'm not shedding any tears,
Oh, no, no, no, no.I'll call you when I wake up
After I've had myself a good night's sleep
The time difference is still unique
From the States to Germany
Oh, you know
Oh, you know
Oh, you know
Oh, you know
You just know
I miss you so
You just know,
I know you know
