Misplaced Anger

A Telemetry

at boiling point the steam floats off no way to avoid such a beast

a darken cloud the shade not to cease it follows in blinding retreat innocent will bleed to release a fit - the need it's an outrage - with every unrest

misplaced anger
it beckons to one's need

it's a long way - to gain control of
a force to one must heed

an angry bolt strikes through a care set deep in a cave of despair

a viscous strife rising to reveal such a cast of undying unreal tolerance will yield to find a hope no deal

misplaced anger

no deserving - takes a lash out in preserving a violent means

misplaced anger
