Slip Into Darkness

Amalgama

I walk these streets, swirlin' 'round my world
Words of contempt, for those who stand in my way.
Push the dogs aside, I stand towards my goal
Perverted ecstasy, it takes a heavy tow.

[chorus]
Some will stubber. Some will fall.
Some will never make it at all.
And my eyes are open wide.
Blind, I cannot see.
Dwelling in the past. And things it cannot be.
And I'm slippin' in darkness!

Redirect the hate that I feel.
Questioning the blog which is real.
I laugh it off again, and take another shot

Another empty glass that breaks
The stairs will make me red and ache
I walked away pain, but I'm back.
With something, a game.

[chorus]

[solo]

(one, two, three, four!)

Some will stubber, some will fall.
Some will never make it, how did?
Some will stubber, and some will crawl!
And we'll finnaly make it, how did?
And my eyes are open wide.
Now finnaly I can see it!
Now we're dwelling in the past.
And things that should not be.
And I escape from the darkness!
