Spring

Mia Doi Todd

Break all my bones
I'll learn to walk again
Break all my bones
I'll learn to dance again
Here comes the springtime
April rains bring May blooms
Here comes the timechange
Green lawns and long afternoons

Wipe off all my charms
I'll learn to fly again
Wipe off all my charms
I'll learn to breathe underwater again
Here comes the springtime
Daffodils in Easter hats
Here comes the timechange
Spring forward, no more falling back

Laugh at all my dreams
I'll learn to see again
Laugh at all my dreams
I'll learn to hope and to try again
Here comes the springtime
Bare branches give birth to leaves
Here comes the timechange
Holding a new hand, grateful for the breeze

Still my swollen lips
I'll learn to speak again
Still my swollen lips
I'll learn to sing again
