At My Mercy

American Music Club

I hold your dress, your dress is blue
I'm a coin that fell into the sea
Now stumbling around, I'm lost from view
Do you know what became of meHe can see with his eyes closed
He'll leave you something to remember him by Valentine said, "No way out
No way out and no goodbye"Now you're finally at my mercy
Now you're at my beck and call
You were born with just one kiss
That's all it tookHe comes to this bar, he gets desperate
He's been shot and killed by love
Sits at the bar thinks about all those angels in heaven
And offer him to the overpass aboveI hold your dress, your dress is blue
I am a coin that fell into the sea
Stumbling around but now I'm lost from view
On the losing side of eternityNow you're finally at my mercy
Now you're at my beck and call
You were born with just one kiss
That's all it took

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/