Within My Soul

The Tony Rich Project

Look no further then you, He's there
Even at this earthly hour right now, God livesThere's refuge, I found peace here, in my fathers house
Open eyes so I see clear, the sun looks much brighter
Here's my life from old to new, nothing's changed but my point of view
Now I'm free from devils hole, I've been born again, truly resurrectedHere I stand because I am strong, everybody can
For this is where I belong, every soul that stands, fine
I'm looking no further then this, everybody says
Then I know, God lives within my soulThrough hard times I endured pain, with my further strength
There's nothin' I cannot change, as strong as I believe
This is love from me to you, all as well as all is true
Now I'm free to kiss the wind, I've been born again, forever resurrectedHere I stand because I am strong, everybody can
For this is where I belong, every soul just stands, fine
I'm looking no further then this, everybody says
Then I know, God lives within my soulThere's something truly funny about life
The way we left and suddenly cried
As long as you know who you are
You left your joy in your lifeEverybody can, every soul just stands
Everybody says, truly resurrected, yeahHere I stand because I am strong, everybody can
For this is where I belong, every soul just stands
I'm looking no further then this, ooh, everybody can
Then I know, God lives within my soulHere I stand because I am strong, anybody can
For this is where I belong, every soul just stands
I'm looking no further then this, anybody can, hey
Then I know, God lives within my soulHere I stand because I am strong, anybody can, hey
For this is where I belong, every soul just stands
I'm looking no further then this, ooh
Then I know, God lives within my soulHere I stand because I am strong
For this is where I belong
I'm looking no further then this
Then I know, God lives within my soul
