Time Has a Way

Head East

You know it won't take much
To change the way I feel
Sitting here all alone
The tears I can't conceal
Time has a way
Of making everything okayAh ah, people come and go
Ah ah, they don't seem to know
That it won't take much
To change their way of life
Open up their minds
Forget their hate and strife
Time has a way
Of making everything okayAh ah ah ah ah ah ah ahTime has a way
Of making everything okay
