Everlasting Love

Gerard Joling

It looks like heaven to see you walk
To see the way you're moving on
Sounds like an angel when you talk
The words come out like in a song
Never thought what love could do inside
You're the place where I can hideIt feels like heaven to be with you
When you treat me like you do
Every minute of the day
Just with you I wanna stay
There will be no end....We've got an everlasting love
So pure divine
We've got an everlasting love
Our love will last for all timeCould draw a picture just by heart
Know every line on your face
You stopped me doing from the start
Ask the things I used to chaseEvery minute of the day
Just with you I wanna stay
There will be no endWe've got an everlasting love
So pure divine
We've got an everlasting love
Our love will last for all timeShould you ever
Have any doubt bout you and me
Please don't ever
No love never
Don't hesitate to tell me how it should beWe've got an everlasting love
So pure divine
We've got an everlasting love
Our love will last for all time
