

Wings of Desire

Jennifer Rush

So many things I wanna do
So many things, oh-oh-oh-oh
But time's a thief
Stealing our life awaySo time be good and time be slow
Give us the chance, oh-oh-oh-oh
To take this love
And see how far it can goAnd baby, can't you see
What could be has only just begun
And baby, you and me
We could be up with the lucky onesAnd we'll never know until we try
Don't let another day pass by, oh-oh-oh-oh
I want to fly on the wings of desireWe lay our lives between the lines
Follow the rules, oh-oh-oh-oh
Our souls in chains
But this carefulness wears thin, ohSo time be good and time be slow
Give us the chance, oh-oh-oh-oh
To take this love
And see how far it can goAnd every day we wait, hesitate
My courage sinks again
And aren't we young enough, brave enough
To run against the windAnd we'll never know until we try
Don't let another day pass by, oh-oh-oh-oh
I want to fly on the wings of desireAnd we'll never know until we try
Don't let another day pass by, oh-oh-oh-oh
I want to fly on the wings of desireAnd we'll never know until we try
Don't let another day pass by, oh-oh-oh-oh
I want to fly on the wings of desireOh, baby, I want to fly
Make my home in the sky
I wanna soar, I wanna fall
I wanna feel it all on the wings of desire
