

The Messerschmitt Twins

Orchestral Manoeuvres in the Dark

My mind is made up
I'm changing faster
Your mind is made up
Avoiding worries
My old ? start to fade away
Forget the talking
Forget the actions
Quiet voices and all that happen
In just one of hour
You could knock me down
Twos a one now
And ones a four now
No longer giving
No longer taking
You these ways I try
Never seem to fail
When you're asking
You sound like telling
Despite the questions
You're not receiving
I can't explain
Why to disappear
Your mind is made up
The time is taken
You reach decisions
We can't avoid them
There's no success
No matter what we do
The two are ones now
And ones a four
No longer giving
No longer taking
These ways I've tried
You never seem to fail
These ways I've tried
You never seem to fail
These ways I've tried
You never seem to fail

These ways I've tried
