

Hometown Honeymoon

Alabama

Hey baby, won't you take my hand
And make me a happy man?
I ain't rich but I found my fortune in you
Two jobs on the night time shift
I'm still left with an empty fist
But my heart is full and my love is true We can still get married
In the style of our friends and family
Gather all of them to celebrate
While we slip out quietly And have a hometown honeymoon
Wildflowers and love is in bloom
We'll have a hometown honeymoon
Just me and you Hometown honeymoon
Out of church and up to your room
We'll have a hoedown afternoon
Dancing to the rhythm of love We can sing and laugh out loud
Lifestyles of the poor but proud
Cuddle up on the porch and enjoy the view
We can't afford Niagara Falls
But there's a fountain by the old town hall
We'll make a wish by the light of a lover's moon I'll get my grandma's wedding ring
And my brother's Chevrolet
We can stay at your mama's house
We don't have to go away To have a hometown honeymoon
Wildflowers and love is in bloom
We'll have a hometown honeymoon
Dancing to the rhythm of love You're daddy's prized possession
I'll make a good impression
I'm gonna get his blessing
That's all we need Hometown honeymoon
Wildflowers and love is in bloom
We'll have a hometown honeymoon
Just me and you Hometown honeymoon
Out of church and up to your room
We'll have a hoedown afternoon
Dancing to the rhythm of love Hometown honeymoon
Hometown honeymoon
