

Blank Infinity

Epica

Trying to keep myself afloat upon this stream
But a thought is pulling me down
Pulling me all the way down We are wandering towards a blank infinity
And extinguishing will now be the only way to diminish your sins
This vortex can't be filled up again
A hole in space and time Do you cry to the heaven's high when you're confined in here?
Do you not ever wonder
why these leaden tears will never dry?
They'll leave behind so many shadows in my mind High in the sky, all of the clouds are passing by Wait for this storm, wait for the rain, and wait for the tears to fall down on me Do you cry to the heaven's high
when you're confined in here?
Do you not ever wonder
why these leaden tears will never dry?
They'll leave behind so many shadows
Living in me, living in all the memories in my life Do you wonder why
These tears never dry
Time forced into life Living in my mind Can we ever find a way in this labyrinth without end? Labyrinth has no end Which turn should I take?
Left or right?
Should I stay?
Should I be the one? Do you cry to the heaven's high
When you're confined in here?
Do you not ever wonder why
This leaden tears will never dry
They leave behind so many shadows
THIS SUBSTANCE IN TIME FORCED INTO LIFE STILL EXISTS BECAUSE IT'S HERE living in me, living in all the memories, in my life Lost inside blank infinity
