

One Whole Hour

Scarlett Johansson

I leave it all behind
If I cannot speak my mind
My conscience defies all known reason
You dream of reality
But I dream so constantly
Can't you see it's a grand illusion? I wanna step inside my bravery
I wanna take each day one whole hour at a time
I can't scream so loud when I stand my ground
Cause I gotta ask when am I done waiting? I know just what it's like
To wait for a voice inside
To appear in sound formation
And when you think you see
Someone who looks like me
Be aware it's a grand illusion I wanna step inside my bravery
I wanna take each day one whole hour at a time
I won't scream so loud when I stand my ground
Cause I gotta ask when am I done waiting?
