

Long Way Back From Hell

Danzig

Yeah
Sold into slavery down in New Orleans
Goddess
Of the bayou light
Black dog's head on the killing bed
Severed
And left to bleed
There on fire
In the corner of the world
There in misery
There on fire
In the corner of the world
Left for God to see Do you want to take a life
Do you want to cross that line
'Cause it's a long way back from Hell
And you don't want to go with me Yeah, poison father of the human race
God
Of the tainted blood
Malevolence
Sneaking up the spine of the world
Ready for the bastard son
There on fire
In the veins of man
There in misery
There on fire
In the veins of man
Left for God to see Do you want to take a life
Do you want to cross that line
'Cause it's a long way back from Hell
And you don't want to go with me Do you want to take a life
Do you want to take a life, yea
Do you want to cross that line, oh
Do you want to cross that line
want to cross that line Oh
Sold into slavery down in New Orleans
Goddess
Of the bayou light
Black dog's head on the killing bed
Severed

And left to bleed
There on fire
In the corner of the world
There in misery
Lucifer's face
In the mirror when you look
Left for God to see Do you want to take a life
Do you want to cross that line
'Cause it's a long way back from Hell
And you don't want to go with me And it's a long way back from Hell
And you don't want to go

Songwriters

DANZIG Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>