EviLove

Lordi

I gave you deep red roses
The thorns cut your hand
We are an owl and a mouse's doomed romance
Now I would like to fondle
But my nails rip your skin
My most tender kiss stings your lips like pinsYour cries they make no difference
I'll always love you the same
Now I try to restrain myself
Cause my affection means painHoney, honey
Lemme hug you like a spider
Honey, honey
Lemme give you eviloveHoney, honey
Lemme kiss you like a viper
Open up your heart
Receive my eviloveOur night in Paris with candles
Ended up in flames
And cupids arrow mangled your pretty face
I wanna be your dream-date
Who takes away your breath
But I'm the man of your nightmares
The gentleman death
