

You Said You Loved Me

Emmi

Eh, eeh eeh yo
Eh, eeh eeh yo Not a chink in your armor,
Not a crack in your voice,
Wear the smile like the summer
You told me I'd never would cry
Yet you smoke like a minute
But I already know
And you cut me like scissors
It's not that you did it, it's that you lied
How could you? How could you? Ooh oh oh ooh
You said you loved me, but you didn't
Ooh oh oh ooh
You said you loved me, but you didn't
'Cause I saw you there at the place we go
Saying words I know to a girl I know, singing
Ooh oh oh ooh
You said you loved me, but you didn't You let me down, let me down
You said you loved me, but you didn't
Loved me, but you didn't, no
You let me down, let me down
You said you loved me, but you didn't
Loved me, but you didn't, no Lived every chapter,
I insist over signs
I'm total disaster,
I'm not the master of my mind
Sorry now that you've hurt me,
But the worst isn't you
It's that I let you do it,
I let you play me for a fool
God help me, what can I do?! Ooh oh oh ooh
You said you loved me, but you didn't
Ooh oh oh ooh
You said you loved me, but you didn't
'Cause I saw you there at the place we go
Saying words I know to a girl I know, singing
Ooh oh oh ooh
You said you loved me, but you didn't You let me down, let me down
You said you loved me, but you didn't
Loved me, but you didn't, no

You let me down, let me down
You said you loved me, but you didn't
Loved me, but you didn't, no You didn't love me, no you didn't love
And you say it's all me, but it's not enough
You didn't love me, no you didn't love
You didn't love You let me down, let me down
You said you loved me, but you didn't
Loved me, but you didn't, no
You let me down, let me down
You said you loved me, but you didn't
Loved me, but you didn't, no
