

All The Lights Went Out

Marcy Playground

She came in from stormy weather
And asked her friend to be there with her
When she slid down Cupid's bow
Oh lookin' fine that day I had a dream that we were lovers
I had a joke and she would smile when I'd say
We could blow
Blow a fuse in heaven
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Well today
All the lights went out in heaven
Yeah today
All the lights went out in heaven And I knew that she was all
All that I needed
Yeah, yeah, 'Cause today
All the lights went out in heaven
Yeah today
All the lights went out in heaven And I knew that we were doomed
Doomed to love each other
