

Sleeping with the Witch

Dax Riggs

Spitting at death
A bat on the wing
We heard midnight
Singing her secret name I dug my way out of the grave
And rode the worms into Judgment Day
Sleeping with the witch I see the shadow of love
And then the absence of
I've been touched by the moonlight
Lost to the warmth of the sun I dug my way out of the grave
And rode the worms into Judgment Day
Sleeping with the witch Sweating a monstrous
Guilty black thing
Its glacial hand
On the reins of my dreams I dug my way out of the grave
And rode the worms into Judgment Day
Sleeping with the witch Sleeping with the witch
Sleeping with the witch
