Lives

Modest Mouse

Everyone's afraid in their own life
If you could be anything you want
I bet you'd be disappointed, am I right?No one really knows the ones they love
If you knew everything they thought
I bet that you'd wish that they'd just shut upWell, you were the dull sound of sharp math
When you were alive

No ones gonna play the harp when you die And if I had a nickel for every damn dime

f the time of a very mind? Every and a facility their avery

I'd have half the time, do you mind? Everyone's afraid in their own lives

If you could be anything you want

I bet you'd be disappointed, am I right?

Am I right? Am I right? Am I right?

Am I right? Am I right? Am I right? And it's our lives

It's hard to remember, it's hard to remember

We're alive for the first time

It's hard to remember, it's hard to remember

Were alive for the last time

It's hard to remember, it's hard to remember To live before you die

It's hard to remember, it's hard to remember

That our lives are such a short time

It's hard to remember, it's hard to remember

When it takes such a long time

It's hard to remember, it's hard to rememberMy mom's God is a woman and my mom she is a witch I like this

My hell comes from inside, comes from inside myself
Why fight this Everyone's afraid in their own lives
If you could be anything you want
I bet you'd be disappointed, am I right?
