

Stitch

Apoptygma Berzerk

Clearing pain, sore emotion Drowning me, Never break the oath. Sin for salvation Like leaves we flow From a need to nothing I said give me a blow Do not forsake me A breath from the past Kissing me then blood will stained I never felt so calm before The entire world is disease So bring your soul Let's hallucinate Because the lie is most perfectly tool Of wordl's resurrection Because you know it too Just give me it and then shout Reflection from the death A meaning of it all It all are cures as a stich Just a stich "Have you ever loved someone?"
