Mother Dawn

Billy Idol

Hold me, hold me
Breathe the light into me
Hold me, hold me
Mother dawn, mother dawn
Dancing 'round the fire
Circling the flame
I listen to the shadows calling out my name
They say, rock me like a baby
Cradle me in the light
Bathe me in a rainbow
Sun restore my sight
Hold me, hold me
Breathe the light into me
Hold me, hold me
Mother dawn
(All night long, yeah)
Hold me, hold me
Breathe the light into me
(All night long, yeah)
Hold me, hold me
Mother dawn, mother dawn
Look into the light
Come and take a journey through the land of night
Darkness strokes the face and steals away the sight
Night is all around me, stars are in my hair
I feel them tangled in the secrets
Well, we'll find hidden there, all right
Reaching through the madness
To the other side
Where the sun is rising
With her arms held wide
Hold me, hold me
Breathe the light into me
Hold me, hold me
Mother dawn
(All night long, yeah, till the dawn light comes)
Hold me, hold me
Breathe the light into me
(All night long, yeah)

Hold me, hold me
(I know you're gonna love me)
Mother dawn
(I know you're gonna love me)
Mother dawn
One star flew against the tapestry of the night
And the earth revolved in perfect symmetry to a symphony of sun
The moon danced its final bow
As the birth of the day exploded in my eyes
My God, [Incomprehensible]
Reaching through the madness
To the other side
Rock me like a baby
Cradle me in light
You're gonna bathe me in a rainbow
And the sun restore my sight
Hold me, hold me
Breathe the light into me
Hold me, hold me
Mother dawn
(All night long, yeah)
Hold me, hold me
([Incomprehensible] All night long, yeah)
Breathe the light into me
(All night long, yeah)
Hold me, hold me
(I know you're gonna love me)
Mother dawn
(I know youre gonna love me, yeah)
Mother dawn
I know you're gonna love me
All night long, yeah
Till the dawn light comes, yeah
All night long, yeah
I know you're gonna love me
Well, all night long, yeah
Till the dawn light comes, yeah
All night long, yeah
I know you're gonna love me, love me
Mother dawn
Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me
