

Midwintertears

Tristania

Shadow cast upon my heart
Endark, thy bleak midwinter tears
Condemned to mourn in silence
The pale moon rise in her eyesSerene like a frozen stream
The flowing beauty in thy tears
I crave for thee my once beloved
Beyond the veils of darkness lostWhere now thy roses wrapped in dusk
Dark enchantress I suffer thy full moon nights
Trespass my undesired darkness
Tears flowing through thy dreamsDark enchantress
The seventh full moon rise
I drown in dusk
And dark riversSummon all my dreams
Like roses on your epigraph
Written in my tears
Thy sorrow and my bleeding heartShe comes so serene
My fallen beauty crowned with leaves
Take me to thy dream
Thy candle will forever burn in me
