

In Reverie

Quinn

Bottles breaking on my face are only your reminder of your love I lost a lifetime ago was I dreaming when I knew you? I don't know. So once again I swim In Reverie without your love
so long ago I can't remember now where we began Smell of burning photographs slides slowly to my nostrils I try remember the soft silence of summer sweating in the evening So once again I swim In Reverie without your love
where we began [3x] where we began [3x]
