

Long Gone

Lady Antebellum

Its so like you just to show up at my door
And act like nothing's happened
You think Ill sweep my heart up off the floor
And give it to you like so many times before
Youre talking to a stranger, Im not that girl anymore That girl is long gone
Boy you missed the boat, it just sailed away
Long gone, shes not drowning in her yesterdays
Betcha never thought Id be that strong
Well, this girl is long gone Dont waste your breath with, Baby, baby please
'Cuz I am so not listening
Dont bother getting down upon your knees and try to beg me
Im tired of how you twist the truth
Youre not talking to the same girl who used to forgive you That girl is long gone
Boy you missed the boat, it just sailed away
Long gone, shes not drowning in her yesterdays
Betcha never thought Id be that strong
Well, this girl is Gone like the wind under Supermans cape
Like a thief in the night I made the great escape
Im not the kind of girl that keeps making the same mistakes That girl is long gone
Boy you missed the boat, it just sailed away
Long gone, Im not drowning in my yesterdays
Betcha never thought Id be that strong, betcha didnt
Yeah, well baby, I proved you wrong This girl is long gone, long gone
This girl is long gone, long gone
This girl is long gone
This girl is gone
