Blue Boot

Eric Donaldson

If you think to know every leaflet about festivity,
Please don't you stifle your conscience. Come singing it merrily
// Old dresser tumble down, we got to build a new one. //2x
Got to sing it out, sing it all about
Got to sing it out.

(// Everyday you keep saying you could a tell it out
But you no have big pot
Figo-bwoy no bail a goat. And you no have blue boots
Figo climb up the eleven step. For you no want no old house come tumble down (u)pon you.
But if it tumble down, we got to build a new one
If you tumble down flat we got to build a new one
Got to sing it out, sing it all about //) 2x

Old dresser tumble down, we got to build a new one
Old dresser tumble down, flat we got to build a new one
