

His Only Trade

Jawbox

Some day he's gonna wake up
In a burning house
And wonder what to save
And wonder who to blame
Someday he's gonna wake up
In a burning house
And wonder what got burned
And what looks the same
Someday he's gonna take stock
Of sleepwalking days
Similar prints and sutured pages
Someday he's gonna take stock
Of the time he lost
When he tied the knot
And pulled the string
Sessions
(He only hurt you)
(When you were lying)
You wanna make that bastard sing
(His only trade)
You wanna make that bastard sing
(His only trade)
You wanna make that bastard sing
Wishing you never lights out
Wishing you never lights out
Wishing you never lights out
Wishing you never lights out
Wishing you never lights out
Wishing you never lights out
Wishing you never lights out
Wishing you never lights out
Wishing you never lights out
