Love's No Friend

Rainbow

Well I don't need much
But I need a friend
Or did you got time for me
Ain't no trouble with you're always down
To find a friend in miseryBut that's allright
That's allright
Ain't gonna fall for the lineThat's allright
That's allright
Don't need no sun to shine
When love's no friend of mineI've been so down I've been on my knees
Just don't seem to feel no pain
Natural loser I've been on the run
Got no shelter from the rainThat's allright
That's allright
Ain't gonna fall for the lineThat's allright
That's allright
Don't need no sun to shine
No cause love's no friend of mineLearn to live wether climb above my head
Got no shame, got no pride
If you need affection
Don't knock on my door
Got no feelings left insideBut that's allright
Yes, That's allright
Ain't gonna fall for the lineThat's allright
That's allright
Don't need no sun to shine
Cause love's no friend
Cause love's no friend
Ah no friend of mine
Love's no friend of mine
