

Day off School

Ballet School

Oh don't wake me up
My bed is so warm
I'm sleepingIt's quarter past eight
Just ten minutes more
I need themOutside is so white
It's not even light
It's freezingCan't you get up first?
I think it's your turn
Yet againOur mom's on the phone
Can't hear what she's saying
But hopefully we're taking the day off school(oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh, ...)This is the dream
To spend the whole day
In PJsAnd breakfast is late
Cause dad made us wait
For pancakesLet's turn up a bed
Into a tent
And play with Lollypop the Cat(oh Lollypop, Lollypop, Lollypop the Cat)I can't believe
It's only ten thirty
It's so much fun taking the day off schoolDo you wanna watch a video?
Do you wanna go play in the snow?
I don't care if it is merely cold
Dad says we could both wear his big coatTumbling around in a white heaven
Strange and quiet, no cars on the road
In a minute we'll go in for diner
I like being out here, but it's getting to coldYou're my best friend
You make everything
As wonderful as taking the day off school
