Sex Rules

Sky Ferreira

We are animals
No matter what we deny
Our bodies strong like magnets
In the darkening sky
It's a complicated blend
Of tenderness and aggression
Whatever gets you off
Whatever your obsession
Sex rules, use your god-given tools
Sex rules, I pity the fools who realize too late
Love, sex, and god are great
Oh oh, oh oh, sex rules
I want you to love me
Baby to love me right
But I'm kinda shy at telling you
To tell you what I like
It's a complicated blend
Of tenderness and aggression
That's what gets me off
That is my obsession
Sex rules, use your god-given tools
Sex rules, I pity the fools who realize too late
Love, sex, and god are great
Oh oh, oh oh, sex rules
Why do we like what like?
Why do we crave what we crave?
Why do some need to be masters?
Why do some need to be slaves?
Sex rules, use your god-given tools
Sex rules, I pity the fools who realize too late
Love, sex, and god are great
Oh oh, oh oh, sex rules
