

King of Diamonds

Motopony

I've been lookin for the king of diamonds,
But I guess the queen will do.
I've been lookin for the king of diamonds,
Till the dealer gave me you.

You've got everything together,
You got everything I want,
You got sharp and sparklin pleasure,
Bleedin from the middle of your palm.

I've been lookin for the king of diamonds,
You know I got the other three.
Spades and clubs they just ain't shinin,
And my heart knows nothins free.

You got everything I needed,
That's why I'm loving you so much.
I damn near just up and cheated,
Till I felt your womens touch.

I've been lookin for the king of diamonds,
But the queen will work just fine.
I've been lookin for the king of diamonds,
Till the dealer made,
youuuuuuuu
Mine.
