

100MPH (Studio)

Stereophonics

Is it heaven or hell at dawn?
You're really goin' up or your goin' down
Do you say your prayers late at night?
Or do you save them for the desperate times
Do you see the beauty of a rose, I doubt it
Do you hear the children sing aloud, no
Can you see the leaves change the colors out there?
Can you taste the water in your mouth?
Is it any wonder?
Is there any hope?
100 miles per hour
Yet the race just still runs slow
The race just still feels slow
Do you believe in good will forever guide?
Does your devil take you to your other side?
Can karma kill you in your mind?
Do you cleanse your soul at least once a night?
Do you see the beauty in a rose, I doubt it
Can you hear the children sing aloud?
Is it any wonder?
Is there any hope?
100 miles per hour
Yet the race just still runs slow
The race just still feels slow
We're running out of time, my friends
You're running out of time, oh yeah, oh yeah
Is there any wonder?
Is there any hope?
100 miles per hour
Yet the race just still runs slow
The race just still feels slow
The race just still runs slow
The race just still feels slow
